

MR. ERNEST H. ROBINSON

Author of "Rifle and Carton" and "The Rifleman's Dictionary." He served in the Queen's Westminsters 12 years ago, took to shooting with the small-bore weapon in 1907, and speedily came to the front. In 1912 match rifle work fascinated him, and he made such progress that in 1913 he figured in the English Elcho team. The same year, in the Grand Aggregate at Bisley (Service Rifle) he won the bronze cross for members of civilian rifle clubs.
